Change Orders: A Change Order shall be defined as any alteration or deviation from the attached specifications, whether agreed to in writing or communicated verbally, that results in additional labor or materials. This includes modifications necessary to ensure the work meets applicable building codes. All such alterations or deviations will be billed as additional charges beyond the stated contract price. Any change order exceeding 15% of the contract amount must be agreed to in writing before the change order work is performed.

Delays and Contingencies: Garage Outfitters' performance shall be contingent upon factors beyond its control, including but not limited to labor strikes, material shortages, accidents, or other delays. Garage Outfitters shall not be held liable for any costs or damages resulting from such delays. The Owner is responsible for maintaining fire and other necessary insurance coverage.

Liability Disclaimer – Coated Surfaces: Garage Outfitters shall not be responsible for injuries or accidents resulting from slips or falls on coated surfaces. Floors may become slippery under certain conditions, including but not limited to the presence of water, ice, oil, or other spills. The Owner is solely responsible for their own safety and that of their guests.

Warranty

Garage Outfitters warrants that: (a) all materials used in your installation will be industry standard and of good quality, (b) workmanship performed by Garage Outfitters or its authorized subcontractors shall be completed in a professional and workmanlike manner using industry best practices, (c) residential installations are warranted for two years from the final completion date, (d) commercial installations are warranted for one year from the substantial completion date.

Warranty Exclusions

This warranty does not cover: (a) damage due to improper maintenance, abuse, misuse, fire, water, Acts of God, or other uncontrollable events, (b) repairs or removals attempted by anyone other than Garage Outfitters or its authorized subcontractors, (c) improper cleaning methods, (d) installations not paid in full, (e) exposed garage front aprons (i.e. front edge), (f) tire tread marks or staining from fluids (i.e. oils or coolants), (g) damage from mechanical impacts, heat, flames, welding, solvents, brake fluid or battery acid, (h) shifts in the substrate caused by ground movement or expansion/contraction, (i) filled control (aka expansion) joints, and (j) moisture problems associated with external drainage issues or slab on grade construction.

Warranty Claim Process

*Proof of purchase is required for warranty claims.

*Claims must be submitted in writing to Garage Outfitters.

*Garage Outfitters will, in its sole discretion, determine whether (a) the floors have been properly maintained, and (b) the warranty applies. If covered, Garage Outfitters will repair or replace the affected areas at no charge. This warranty provides the sole and exclusive remedy available to the client.

Warranty Limitations

This warranty is non-transferable and applies only to the original purchaser. All other warranties, express or implied—including merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose—are disclaimed. Garage Outfitters shall not be liable for consequential, incidental, indirect, special, punitive, or exemplary damages, including but not limited to property damage, loss of time, legal costs, or travel expenses.

Arbitration Agreement - Any disputes arising from or relating to this warranty shall be resolved exclusively by arbitration under the Vermont Uniform Arbitration Act. Arbitration awards shall be binding, and judgment on the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. Neither party shall be liable for indirect, special, or consequential damages.
